

Job Title: RN-Correctional

Location: Philadelphia, PA

Shift: 3:00 PM -11:30 PM

Duration :14 weeks assignment

40 hours /week- Sun, Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat

- Must have assessment experience.
- Must be able to draw blood
- Must be willing to float to another facility if needed
- Must be able to work every other weekend.

Job responsibilities:

- Providing direct medical care like administering medications and wound care, managing both acute and chronic illnesses, responding to emergencies, and performing initial health assessments upon admission.
- They also educate patients, coordinate with other healthcare providers for continuity of care, document patient health, and work with correctional officers to ensure safety.
- Duties can range from routine tasks, like wound care and administering medications, to dealing with hunger strikes.
- Many of your responsibilities may involve patient education.
- You might teach inmates everyday health skills like how to control their diabetes, make good food choices and develop better coping skills.